

Let's Come Together: Terms of Reference

Purpose

To bring together families who are supported by MacIntyre in order to gather their views and opinions; to identify and review resources; to forward plan and to provide families with knowledge to ensure a consistent approach to working with families across MacIntyre.

Aims and Functions

- To communicate with families through the Let's Come Together meetings
- To gather the views of families from across MacIntyre
- To bring together families to identify and review resources
- To build a platform and network for families
- To agree and contribute to our monthly agenda

Let's Come Together attendees are expected to:

- Listen to each other
- Be respectful of other's views and opinions
- Work together to find solutions
- Advocate for their family member
- Review work
- Provide feedback to MacIntyre with regard to personal experiences
- Reflect local learning to benefit the wider organisation
- Be willing to share the information and knowledge locally

Confidentiality

The Let's Come Together group may have access to confidential information as presented to them from the group meetings. Every attendee will respect confidentiality of matters brought before the group.

Key Performance Indicators

- Let's Come Together group members will have Nicola Payne's contact details
- All areas will be aware of the Let's Come Together group, and will help promote locally in their areas
- The Let's Come Together group will contribute to the review of work that is created under the Family umbrella
- The Let's Come Together group will contribute to the identification, induction and evaluation of resources/workshops
- The Let's Come Together group will grow and develop over time, led by the views of the group.