

About MacIntyre

MacIntyre was founded in 1966 by the parents of a child with a learning disability. Today MacIntyre provides learning, support and care for more than 1,400 children, young people and adults who have a learning disability and/or autistic people.

The Cherries, Flackwell Heath, Buckinghamshire

Summary of The Cherries:

- Six- bedroom home, shared between five men in their 50's.
- Upside-down house
- Bedrooms and bathrooms on ground floor
- Shared bathroom facilities – two bathrooms and a shower room.
- Shared living and dining space upstairs
- Accessible garden
- Access to local day activities
- Close to local shops, park and pub
- Use of adapted vehicle
- Close to public transport

"Care is very person centred and individuals are included in decisions. Their likes and dislikes are well documented and staff were well aware of these preferences. Where relevant, family and friends are involved and [each person's] communication preferences and ways of communicating are well documented."

PAMMS Report (November 2023)

Scan here to come on a Virtual Tour

MacIntyre at a glance

Meet the Manager

"Hello, I'm Sarah and I'm delighted to welcome you to The Cherries.

Once inside you can't help but smile, as the gentlemen that live there love to greet and tell you about their day which makes the home lovely and warm. The staff team at The Cherries are passionate about supporting each person to lead a life that makes sense to them.

We are ambitious to keep developing and we work in partnership with the local community and other professionals to building relationships with friends and family.

As Area Manager for Bucks I love my visits to hear about everything everyone has been getting up to."

